DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the paper(s) filed 9/17/2009.

Terminal Disclaimer

2. The terminal disclaimer filed on 9/17/2009 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration dates of the applications listed in the previous office action mailed 3/17/2009 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 502 is objected to because of the following informalities:
 - Claim 502 should apparently depend from 499, else it provides a duplicate of claim 493. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 478-484, 488-507 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

- Claims 478, 490, 499, each of these independent claims uses the phrase "and/or" throughout the claim which can lead to a lack of clarity whether all the items must be present (i.e. and) or whether only one of the items must be present (i.e. or). Applicant should probably replace the and/or phrase with simply "or" in this open ended claim.

- Claim 478, the paragraphs starting with "wherein said second Internet-enabled server is configured" (page 3 of 14) and "wherein said second Web-based subsystem if further configured" (page 4 of 14) appear to provide the same claimed capabilities (allow downloading of tags for installation). It is not clear whether this configured capability is redundantly present in two different system elements or whether these two elements (server and subsystem) are somehow actually part of the same system element that provides this capability.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. As best understood, claims 478-484, 488-507 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
